Rochelle is genuinely such an intelligent likeable person. She makes section engaging and incredibly helpful.
She was very good at preparing us for the final
Rochelle is awesome — she is dedicated, explains complicated topics in a digestible way, and is super responsive.
Rochelle is an exceptional teacher with an excellent mastery of the content she is presenting on. She makes content digestible and understandable to people regardless of their level of experience with foreign policy. She has a clear and visible passion for the subjects she presents on, and it makes her work high-quality and engaging.
Rochelle is a great TF. She is highly intelligent. She leaves insightful comments on work, and understands the material well.
Rochelle was charming and organized, but she would often spend too much time on silly exercises and would rush through the course material.
Rochelle was one of the highlights of this course. She was very well organized and clearly passionate about the topics. The readings were sometimes difficult to understand but Rochelle always broke them down and applied them to the real world which made it really easy to understand. Rochelle was really awesome in answering questions and giving helpful feedback on assignments. She really made this class for me.
Too much love for Rochelle. She can do no wrong.
Rochelle was amazing! She preps extensively for section, encourages lots of participation, and is always approachable.
Rochelle is an incredible teacher. When leading section she thoroughly explained the topics and tied the topics to real life examples that aided in my understanding of the topic. Not only is she an effective teacher, she intentionally and carefully inserts places in her section where participants can ask questions, build on ideas, or clarify key concepts and ideas. As a result of having Rochelle immediately before lecture, I often came to lecture already understanding key concepts which aided in my comprehension of the material and the ways in which the material has tangible impacts on the US moving forward.
Rochelle was truly such an amazing TF. She was always accessible for questions, extremely responsive over slack and always made time out of her day for office hours. She was an extremely kind and understanding TF and I really enjoyed her sections
Rochelle was a huge help this semester. From day one, she made the material easier to understand and always kept things interesting. She mixed things up by using group activities, discussions, and other fun ways to teach, which made the class more engaging. Outside of class, she was always available to help, whether through extra office hours, quick email replies, or one-on-one meetings. She was patient when explaining tough topics and made sure everyone felt comfortable asking questions. Overall, Rochelle was a great teaching fellow who really cared about helping students succeed.
Great section led by Rochelle! The slides were clear and concise. Often had an interactive component. Great at finding simple, grounded examples for concepts. Flexible.
Rochelle was wonderful! I couldn't believe this was her first time teaching a section. She was able to explain concepts very effectively and made section engaging.
